Jigyasa Special

The Oak And The Reeds Cap Seller

In a forest was a strong oak. Though quite young, it was firm. The oak was proud of its strength.

Near him, several reeds grew. The oak often boasted to them about its strength. It always made

One day, a storm broke out in the forest. The trees swayed alarmingly. But the oak was confident that it would withstand the storm. However, the wind was so strong that after a while, the oak began to

When the storm waned, it noticed that the reeds were still standing. "How are you still here when I fell?" it asked in amazement. The reeds replied, "We bent over when the wind blew. So we did not break." The oak was silenced.

"Be flexible in your approach; rigidity may harm you."

CONNECT WITH JIGYASA

This illustrated based inclusive bulletin is a non-profit initiative by Jigyasa Charitable Trust to enhance the reading learning habit of students at early and middle childhood including specially-abled, and designed by a team of specially-abled artists. It is reaching out to forty thousand readers and creating work opportunities for differently-abled. You can help, support and join us in this endeavor by subscribing, sponsoring and volunteering with us.
